

Brandon Robinson

Environmental Protection Agency Region 6

Brandon Robinson is a rising 3L at Texas A&M University School of Law in Fort Worth, TX. He received a B.A. in Psychology and a B.S. in Criminal Justice from Texas State University. In law school, he went on a trip with the school to Israel to study the relationship between the Israeli government and the Bedouin communities, and the Bedouin's access to the Israeli water system. In his free time, he enjoys hiking, spending time with his wife, Claire, and walking their dog, Karma.

Corin Nguyen-Toups

City of Dallas Office of Environmental Quality and Sustainability

Corin Nguyen-Toups is a first-generation law student at Tulane Law School in New Orleans, Louisiana. Prior to law school she received a B.A. from the University of Houston. At Tulane Law School, she is the Senior Business Editor of Tulane Environmental Law Journal, a student attorney at the Environmental Law Clinic, and member of the Asian Pacific American Law Student Association. She has also given multiple presentations, including a CLE class, on her utility vegetation management research and does pro bono services for a riverkeeper non-profit organization based in Louisiana.

Marcus Chiu

Railroad Commission

Marcus Chiu is a 2L at the University of Houston Law Center and serves as a board member for the Energy & Environmental Law Society. He is from Vancouver, British Columbia and spent most of his life in Houston. He received a bachelor's degree in Psychology from Texas A&M University and is pursuing a career as an energy and natural resources attorney. In his spare time, he likes volunteering, collecting fountain pens, and playing table tennis.

Allison Lee

Harris County District Attorney's Office, Environmental Crimes Section

Allison Lee is a rising 3L at the University of Houston Law Center. She graduated from the University of Houston with a B.A. in Philosophy and English in 2022. During her time in law school, she has enjoyed being part of the Death Penalty and Criminal Appeals Clinic and interning with the TCEQ. In her free time, she enjoys reading poetry and playing the piano.

Andrew Lisenby

Office of the Attorney General, Environmental Protection Division

Andrew Lisenby is a 2L at Texas Tech University. He is from Orangefield, Texas and has a B.S. and an M.A. in Psychology from Sam Houston State University. After graduation, Andrew worked as a middle school teacher and served in the Texas Army National Guard. Andrew intends to pursue a career in administrative law after law school. In his free time, Andrew enjoys spending time outside and taking road trips to new locations.

Leonora Owsley

Texas Commission on Environmental Quality

Leonora Owsley is a rising 3L at SMU Dedman School of Law. She graduated from Wheaton College (IL) in 2022 with a B.A. in Psychology and in History. At SMU, Leonora is the student assistant for the Tsai Center for Science, Technology and Law, as well as a Senior Articles Editor for the SMU Science and Technology Law Review. Her family lives in Portugal and Ireland, so while her heart is in Texas she loves visiting them abroad. In her spare time, she loves birdwatching, reading, and learning new card games.

Charles O'Neil

Texas Water Development Board

Charles O'Neil is a rising 3L at the University of Houston Law Center. He is from Spring, Texas, and received his B.A. in History from Sam Houston State University. His education in history showed him the ability of lawyers to make a positive impact, and he attended law school intending to study environmental law. He enjoys spending time with his cat, studying history, and attending concerts in his free time.

Maya Rigley

Texas Parks and Wildlife

Maya Rigley is a second-year law student at Baylor University. Prior to law school she received her undergraduate degree in Government and History from the University of Texas at Austin, worked as a deputy clerk for the Supreme Court of Texas, and was a Fulbright Student to Taiwan. Maya is on the executive board of the Baylor Environmental and Natural Resource Law Society. Maya is originally from Dallas, Texas and enjoys spending time outdoors with her four-year-old labradoodle.

